Cassini Scientist for a Day Essay Contest

Attention: All U.S. Students in grades 5 to 12:

You are invited to participate in the Spring 2009 edition of the Cassini Scientist for a Day essay contest.

Choose one of these three imaging targets and write about why you think it's the best choice to learn more about the science of Saturn's moons and rings.

On May 25, 2009, the Cassini spacecraft will take these images of Saturn's moons. Contest winners will be invited to participate in a dedicated teleconference with Cassini scientists from NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

Entry deadline: April 30, 2009
(at 12 noon, Pacific Daylight Time)
